

Book Recommendations for 4eme and 3eme

International Section Georges
Seurat, Courbevoie

Mysteries and detective novels

Any mystery novel by Agatha Christie

Alexander McCall Smith, The Number One Ladies' Detective Agency

Any book by Stephen King (Carrie, Misery, The Shining etc)

Gothic novels

Emily Bronte, Wuthering Heights

Charlotte Bronte, Jane Eyre

Mary Shelley, Frankenstein

Bram Stoker, Dracula

Oscar Wilde, The Picture of Dorian Gray

Science fiction, fantasy and dystopia

Ray Bradbury, Fahrenheit 451

Frank Herbert, Dune

Aldous Huxley, Brave New World

Daniel Keyes, Flowers for Algernon

Daniel Martel, Life of Pi

George Orwell, 1984

Survival

Jack London, White Fang

Gary Paulsen, Hatchet

American classics

Harper Lee, To Kill a Mocking Bird

Jack London, Martin Eden

F.S Fitzgerald, The Great Gatsby

Arthur Miller, The Crucible

John Steinbeck, Of Mice and Men

Mark Twain, The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn

Any play by Tennessee Williams

Young heroes

Steven Chbosky, The Perks of Being a Wallflower

Louisa May Alcott, Little Women

Questions of identity, race and the immigrant experience

Maya Angelou, I Know Why The Caged Bird Sings

Sherman Alexis, The Absolute True Diary of a Part-Time Indian

Sue Monk Kidd, The Secret Life of Bees

Kathryn Stockett, The Help

